

Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex Updates Mask Policy

CAPE CANAVERAL (July 29, 2021) – KENNEDY SPACE CENTER – Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex has updated guest safety guidelines in accordance with the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

As of today, all guests, including those vaccinated against COVID-19, are required to wear face coverings in all indoor locations at Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex. This includes all attractions, attraction queues, show viewing areas, restaurants and bus transportation to the Apollo/Saturn V Center. Guests who have been fully vaccinated against COVID-19 are not required to wear face coverings outdoors.

As always, the health and safety of employees and guests is the highest priority for Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex. In accordance with the CDC's recommendations, the visitor complex will continue all precautionary measures including limited attendance, accommodating social distancing, encouraging advance daily admission purchases and implementing increased frequency of sanitization and disinfection.
